Inequalities in Europe and Central Asia are on the decrease.

The middle class in Eurasia has tripled in size.

2001 2013

That’s 90 million people who live with US$10-$50 per day.

And 40 million fewer people living in poverty. = The population of Poland

Europe and Central Asia has been comparatively more equal and is now better integrated globally.

But progress is at risk.

Commodity prices are collapsing.
Remittances are down.
Growth is sluggish.

50% of workers are in vulnerable employment in some countries.

Creating better jobs + eliminating exclusion, + closing the gender gap = URGENT.

Greening economies can produce multiple benefits.

And so can solving frozen conflicts and ending corruption.
